Lead With Love

This talk/keynote address or fireside chat will motivate and inspire your audience while exploring how applying love to business can take your company (and life) to the next level. This unconventional approach will lead to more profits, more productivity, and more purpose.

Kathy takes the audience through her Tools for Transformation from her book Feet To The Fire. Through clear lessons, you'll find out how to ethically build a profitable and meaningful business, promote a culture of inclusivity, and find balance in your work and life. Discover how you can use love to build your living legacy today.
